

What I believe is going to happen by December 2012

First of all, it is happening Now!

What we are seeing is a steady build up of raising the frequencies in our solar system. This frequency raising is increasing in speed the closer we get to 2012.

What does raising the frequency of the 'energetic soup' that we live in have to do with me?

You are a part of your environment. You are an energetic receiver, your DNA is an antenna (only 3% of the function of DNA is for protein synthesis – this is what conventional science wants to teach us, and says that the other 90+% is just Junk! Since when did nature ever build something that constitutes 90% junk?) your DNA is build to receive phonons (sound/tone) and convert that information into photons (light/colour) creating a holographic image.

Nothing that you look at is actually there, quantum science now proves that when we study an atom (atoms are the smallest parts of the whole system of which we are made) there is virtually no matter. 99% of an atom is space, its energetic, it's a hologram.

Quantum science also tells us that an atom or particle can switch instantly from a particle to a wave and that a particular particle can be in two places at the same time. It also tells us that once a particle has been in contact with another particle, they always remain in communication with each other no matter what the physical distance of separation this could be understood by the wave phenomenon that a particle can move in and out of. We are all connected to each other and to everything else in the Universe!

By raising our frequency, we release the heavy, slow, dense environment of the 3rd dimension which allows us to become less physical and more energetic. We are being raised into the 5th dimension and possibly higher.

This means that the cellular properties of the human self at the DNA level are changing, the DNA is now able to receive much higher frequencies (information) to be able to navigate higher levels of existence.

This means we can 'see' more, understand more and create our own reality with much more precision and speed. There has never been a more important time to watch what you are thinking and saying, to yourself and others. Your thoughts are pure energy, they permeate out into the Universal consciousness wave and are then returned to sender via manifestation.

There are a lot of reports in the public arena about the future of the planet Earth, all of them are true. It is up to each one of us to focus our thoughts and attention on what kind of planet Earth we actually want to live on now and into the infinite future.

We are the ones. Not government, not the shadow government, not corporations or the military, Us, you and me will determine the future of our planet Earth! We need not get caught up in the fear and the illusion that governments and corporations wish to impose on us by way of terrorism (noun - a terroristic method of governing or of resisting a government) or health related epidemics such as SARS and H1N1 virus. These are all methods of controlling the thought processes of the population to create the 'reality' we all witness in the current earth paradigm by way of fear. Dr Bruce Lipton, a cellular Biologist and Epigenetic specialist, states through his research into how a cell operates in this 'information soup' that we react to our environment, it is the Information in our local environment which dictates how we feel, what we think, what we see, our health and whether our body is in a state of growth or defence. Dr.

Lipton points out that you can not be in a state of growth if you are constantly in a state of defence. This is very significant, the population of the Earth has been bombarded with fear from our governments constantly since 1999. First we had the computer based Y2K bug (a non event), then it was onto 911 (an inside job) and the wars that followed and are ongoing (which were largely about seizing important ancient technology and records from Saddam Hussein's museum -hence the allowed looting- and control of a very important Star Gate that is in Iraq) , then we had the SARS virus (a non event), then a number of variant bird viruses and now we are confronted with the so called Swine Flu –H1N1- which is now being dictated as a global pandemic. When pandemics are declared, a whole host of powers are unleashed to governments for controlling the populace. And we cannot leave out the controlled implosion of the worlds financial institutions from September 2008 (the biggest implosion is yet to come).

We find ourselves in a very precarious situation indeed. What do we actually want to choose and create?

It is up to You! And this can not be taken lightly, it is extremely serious.

Governments around the world have plans to control its citizens in very draconian ways. This means that your freedoms will be compromised if we, as a collective whole, do not embrace this consciousness raising and start to see thru the illusion of fear that is upon us.

You have the keys in your DNA and cellular network to unlock the full human potential. You must reject all forced inoculations and incarcerations that may be put onto the population in the coming months, this will be very evident in the USA. Sydney also still have the huge fencing it hired for the APEC conference, they hired it for 5 years. Why would the government, which is supposedly broke, hire a massive fence for 5 years when it was only needed for 1 week?

One thing that must be understood about reality is that time is not linear, it is dimensional. This is to say that just as we are right now locked into the 3rd dimension of forward/back, left/right, up/down plus the 'linear' dimension of time to create multiple reference points for multidimensional experiencing, Time too is multidimensional, it is past, present and future happening simultaneously, we just don't yet have the required reference points activated to experience this, but it is coming, and the third eye/pineal gland has a lot to do with it.

You and me, your brother and sister, neighbour and milk man, internet programmer and hairdresser in Iran, all have a part to play in moulding the future Earth we want to live in. Do you have the ability to see thru the lies and deceit? Do you have the required abilities to fully assimilate the incoming higher frequencies that are being transmitted to the Earth and other planets in our Solar System? (Its not just Earth that is heating up!)

Will you have the courage to stand up for your rights? Will you be strong enough to imprint your vision into the Universal Consciousness Grid to create the Earth future of peace and harmony and support and love, just the way you want it?

Do you have the courage? Do you even give a shit??

I hope you do, because we are indeed at a cross roads of future time lines and higher dimensional realities. Take a look at the world, the world we call home. Is this the reality you seriously want to keep experiencing for the next 50+ years? I do not! And I hope and pray that enough of us will stand up and come forth to change reality. And the best part is you don't have to go anywhere or join any group, you just have to focus your thought and not get swept up in the fear that is being presented in the media.

The following resources will be very valuable and beneficial in allowing you to come to a higher understanding of what is being played out here on Earth. And yes, it is a game. The Illuminati do see this as a game and this game has rules. One of the rules is disclosure, before you participate in any game you must know the rules, and therefore everything is placed before us, you just have to 'look' and want to 'see'. (It is just like in any military war scenario, there is a requirement called the 'Rules of Engagement').

See thru the illusion, follow your truth. Feel it in your heart and follow it to the end.
